Hello, Anne-san, Mone-chan.

Hellooo~!

Reszurre-san... You know who's here, right?

Word spreads fast in this village, and Mone and Anne were the first ones to visit my workshop after hearing that Reszurre has regained her eyesight. Mone in particular was so excited that Anne barely managed to convince her to make a detour and not come empty-handed.

Yes! We heard you could see now, so we gathered some flowers for you!

!!

Is this bouquet... for me?

They were just ordinary flowers, but it's the feelings that matter.
I'm sure that her recovery is in part thanks to Anne and Mone being there for her. Illuminated by the afternoon sun and with flowers in hand, Reszurre's smile shone brighter than ever.

Thank you... so much!
